Panchayat staff intensify strike

HANS NEWS SERVICE
NALGONDA

THE ongoing strike by junior and outsourcing panchayat secretaries demanding regularisation of their jobs entered the 15th day on Friday. As part of the strike, the secretaries protested by playing Bathukamma before the collectorates. At some places, they protested by getting into ponds and reservoirs.

With the government not relenting, the protesters announced their move to further intensify the strike till their demands were met. Officials are worried that governance in gram panchayats would be hit by the strike.

Although the government had warned that it would sack the staff they did not
