District Collector AS Dinesh Kumar, ZP chairperson Buchepalli Venkayamma, MLA Balineni Srinivasa Reddy and others presenting awards to the volunteers at a programme in Ongole on Friday

PRAKASAM district Collector AS Dinesh Kumar applauded the services of volunteers at the 'Volunteerla ku Vandanam' programme held here on Friday. Along with ZP chairperson Buchepalli Venkayamma and Ongole MLA Balineni Srinivasa Reddy, the Collector presented Seva Mitra, Seva Ratna and Seva Vajra awards to the best-performing volunteers from ward secretariats in Ongole town.

Later addressing the gathering, Collector Dinesh Kumar said volunteers are playing a key role in delivering the welfare programmes of the State government to the eligible beneficiaries. He lauded Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy for his initiation to felicitate the volunteers in recognition of their services. He said with the introduction of volunteers and ward and village secretariat system, the government brought revolutionary changes in the administration. He praised the volunteers in the district that it is due to their services the district is in the top two positions in the services offered through the village and ward secretariats in the state. The Collector appreciated that the volunteers rendered selfless service during the COVID pandemic and conducted the fever survey about 50 times. He announced that they selected a total of 10,365 volunteers for the awards in the district.

ZP chairperson Buchepalli Venkayamma praised the services of the volunteers for being supportive at all times, including the pandemic.

MLA Balineni Srinivasa Reddy said that he saluted the volunteers for their services. He said that he understood how much they are penetrated with the lives of the common public, during Gadapa Gadapaki Mana Prabhutvam campaign. He said that he will always be at their service in resolving any issues of them. Ongole Municipal Commissioner M Venkateswara Rao stated that they selected 1,169 including two volunteers for Seva Vajra, 12 volunteers for Seva Ratna and 1,155 volunteers for Seva Mitra awards, based on their performance and satisfaction of the families in their cluster. He informed that Seva Ratnas will receive Rs 30,000, Seva Vajras receive Rs 20,000 and Seva Mitras receive Rs 10,000 as part of the Volunteerlaku Vandanam awards.

CM's generosity towards ailing volunteer

Hans News Service
Vijayawada (NTR district)

CHIEF Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy has proved his generosity once again by coming to the rescue of a volunteer, who has been working with dedication and extending his services to the people for the past four years despite his two damaged kidneys.

Jakkula Sombabu is a Dalit and working as volunteer at the Secretariat 5 in Ward 20 in Murali Nagar of Kanuru mandal. He met the Chief Minister along with his mother Venkamma and brothers Janardhan and Naveem at the volunteers' felicitation programme here on Friday and sought financial help to overcome his kidney ailment.

Moved by his condition, the CM ordered the provide immediate financial help of Rs 2 lakh to the family, besides a financial assistance of Rs 10 lakh from the Chief Minister's Relief Fund. He also ordered NTR district Collector S Dilli Rao to sanction a monthly pension of Rs 10,000 to Sombabu for undergoing dialysis at regular intervals.

Assuring the family that the government would bear the expenses needed for kidney transplantation, CM Jagan directed the officials to expedite the formalities of online registration for Sombabu's kidney transplantation.

Collector Dilli Rao handed over Rs 2 lakh cheque to Sombabu family within an hour of the CM instructions. He said the other financial help as ordered by the Chief Minister would be fulfilled in the next few days.

Sombabu and his family members expressed their gratitude to the Chief Minister.

ONGC ORGANISES 'OFFSITE MOCK DRILL'

Hans News Service
Kakinada

OIL and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC), Kakinada, in association with Dr BR Ambedkar Konaseema district authorities conducted an 'offsite mock drill' at Odalarevu onshore terminal on Friday.

Led by Executive-Director Asset Manager Ratnesh Kumar, the emergency response drill demonstrated a scenario of gas leakage from 14" high pressure gas pipelines connecting Vasistha and U-field subsea wells to VA-S1 plant. The exercise was aimed at demonstrating emergency preparedness of ONGC, mutual aid industries and district crisis group to create awareness amongst the local populace.

Enacting the scenario, at the onset of emergency, DMP (Disaster Management Plan) was activated, which incorporated close co-ordination among M/s Vedanta, M/s PIL, fire services departments of ONGC Kakinada, ONGC Rajahmundry and M/s GAIL, state fire services and medical departments of ONGC Kakinada and A.P. state government.

The Disaster Management Plan was successfully executed with support from district Collector and District Magistrate Himanshu Shukla and SP P Sridhar.

RDO Vasanta Rayudu along with officials from ONGC took part in the mock drill, which is an integral part of ONGC's culture of safety based on the guidelines of DGMS and is organised periodically.
