

Freedom of speech misused to peddle hate enable us to call ourselves a decent society. We should be holding ministers who violate the right to freedom accountable. We should also ask this question to ourselves – what is the impact of hate speech, stigmatisation and mockery upon the psyche and self-concept of members of the minority community? The holders of power and their minions refer to members of the minority community in disparaging terms, perverse ideologues misuse social media and focus on the negative, current and dominant ideologies regularly weaponise them, bully and denigrate that they refrain from offering their prayers. How many of us even think about how our fellow citizens feel when they are mercilessly bullied and when they are asked to apologise to the ideologues who have been hurt, humiliated and again? Freedom of speech of ministers has to be curbed. And we have to identify with the victims of humiliation. We have to learn from Sahir Ludhianvi's immortal words. In a song he wrote for BR Chopra's 1957 movie Hum Dono he sang: "Yeh kiska lahu hai, kaun mara?" This question can perhaps form the building block of a decent society.

spread awareness among the people by flying kites with the slogans of blood donation, eye donation and organ donation. Kite enthusiasts including 800 children flew kites and cut patches of each other with kites of various sizes, shapes and colors at the hostel grounds.

So children in Kite Festival and Chhota Bheem and Doraemon became the center of attraction in Motera. Bharuch MLA Ramesh Mistry, Chief Minister Niral Patel, Sociologist Prashant Patel, Sankalp Foundation President Sanjay Talati, Project Chairman Gautam Mehta, Sanket Patel and other members and kite enthusiasts were present in the kite festival.
