VCC POLLS AAP releases names for 9 wards

MAHESH M GOUDAR @Vijayapura

WITH political activities intensifying for the Vijayapura City Corporation (VCC) polls, the Aam Aadmi Party has announced its candidates for nine wards, whereas BJP, Congress and JD(S) are yet to release the names of their candidates. The AAP has announced its nominees for the following wards 1, 3, 4, 9, 21, 23, 28, 29 and 32 for the October 28 city corporation polls on Sunday. "The average age of the candidates announced is 37 years and none of them have criminal records. The candidates list for the remaining wards will be announced in a day or two," said Rohan Inapur, district president of AAP.

"We have been preparing for the city corporation polls for the past two years. A committee was formed to identify the suitable candidates from all the 35 wards. Among the candidates shortlisted, most of them are either graduates or post graduates. The tickets are being given to all the religions, caste and creed. We are confident of making a debut in the district politics by registering victory in most of the wards," said Inapur. Meanwhile, BJP and Congress are yet to announce their candidates list for the city corporation polls. The last date to file the nomination is on October 17. On the condition of anonymity, a Congress leader said, "The party leaders are occupied in Bharat Jodo Yatra. A local party meeting on the city corporation is likely to be held on Sunday. However, some candidates who are confident of getting tickets have already filed papers. The official candidates list will also be released only on Sunday."

Nominations

Though national parties are yet to release its official candidates list for the city corporation polls, as many as 40 candidates from BJP have filed papers, 27 nominees from Congress have filed nominations and four from JD(S) have filed papers. Apart from this, a total of 36 independent candidates have filed nominations.
