(PRAKASAM DISTRICT)

THREE persons died on the spot in a road accident, when the car in which they were travelling lost control and hit a stationary lorry from behind in Ongole on Friday. The accident took place just a few minutes before they could reach the house.

According to Ongole taluka police, Gummadi Pavan Kumar (40), Teravadi Paramesh Rao (44) and Singamaneni Srinivasa Rao (45) went to Thailand on a business trip and returned to India after 15 days. All the three are natives of Ongole. From Chennai airport, they started to Ongole on Thursday night and rumbled into a lorry from behind between Valluru and Pelluru on national highway 16, just 7 km away from Ongole. All the three died on the spot from the impact of the collision.

Taluka police shifted the bodies to Ongole Government General Hospital and after postmortem handed the bodies to the relatives of the deceased. A case was registered and investigation is on.

ANDHRA Pradesh State Food Commission chairman Ch Vijay Prathap Reddy informed that fortified rice will be distributed across the State through public distribution system from May. ICDS, civil supplies, education and tribal welfare departments have been directed to provide nutritious food to the children.

He conducted a review meeting with the officials at Alluri Sitarama Raju district Collectorate in Paderu on Friday. During the two-day district tour, 30 MLS points, ration shops, Anganwadi centres, mobile distribution vehicles, schools and hostels in Anantagiri, Araku, Dumbriguda and Paderu mandals were inspected. On this occasion, some deficiencies were identified and appropriate instructions were issued, he said.

State Food Commission Chairman Ch Vijay Prathap Reddy, Alluri Sitarama Raju District Collector Sumeeth Kumar and others at a review meeting held at the Collectorate in Paderu on Friday

Prathap Reddy clarified that he had inspected 366 centres across the State and action has been taken against the staff at some places. He warned that laziness and lack of quality will not be tolerated. The chairman ordered the officials to follow the menu of midday meal and create awareness about fortified rice. It is explained that 50 grams of fortified rice prepared with vitamins and iron are provided for every kg for strong nutrition of children.

If there are any differences in the quality and quantity of food distributon, he suggested contacting 94905 51117 through WhatsApp and action will be taken.

District Collector Sumeeth Kumar said that the defects identified during the Food Commission Chairman's inspection will be rectified. The suggestions and recommendations of the commission will be implemented.

Joint Collector Siva Srinivas said that special attention will be given to Anganwadi and mid-day meals and all steps will be taken to ensure proper distribution. He brought to the chairman's notice that it is difficult for mobile delivery vehicles to go to the high hilly areas and there is also a signal problem.

Vigilance & Enforcement officials inspect Anganwadi centres

Vigilance and Enforcement officials inspecting the registers at an Anganwadi centre in NTR district on Friday

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA

VIGILANCE and Enforcement officials on Friday inspected as many as 56 Anganwadi centres across the State to find out the implementation of YSR Sampurna Poshan and Poshan Plus schemes, besides other schemes. The officials found that most of the Anganwadi centres failed to follow the government menu chart and there was no proper supply of milk and YSR Kits to these centres.

Milk is not being supplied to the centres and the beneficiaries were not receiving milk in Yarlaga-gadda village of Challapalli, the vigilance found.

Also, YSR Kits and Balam-rutham are being supplied to Cheemalapadu of A Konduru mandal in NTR district. Similarly, supervisors and CDPOs have not inspected the centres at North Raju Palem of Kovvaluru mandal in SPSR district. CDPO and PD have not inspected the centre for the last six months at East Peta of Punganur mandal in the Chittoor district.

YSR Sampurna Poshan Kits registers are not updated and signatures of lactating mothers in the mid-day meals register were not obtained for September in another district.

The officials found out that in many Anganwadi centres, though the beneficiaries are absent, they were recorded as present in the attendance register.

3 inter-State chain snatchers arrested

(NTR DISTRICT)

A special investigation team of NTR district police on Friday arrested a three-member inter-State chain-snatching gang. They recovered over 346 gold ornaments worth Rs 16 lakh and three motorcycles worth Rs 2 lakh from them. The arrested were identified as Chintala Durga Prasad, native of Vambay Colony; Moturi Balashoury of Krishnalanka; and Pendra Pedda Venkateswarlu of Mangalagiri.

The police said that the snatchers were allegedly involved in 13 snatching incidents and three bike thefts in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. According to police, Durga Prasad, a habitual offender,

Vijayawada rural DCP Mary Prashanthi producing the arrested before the media in Vijayawada on Friday was involved in 10 bike thefts and 15 chain snatching cases and police arrested him and sent him to jail.

There he met Balashoury and Venkatesh and became friends. After releasing from jail, the trio started chain snatching as a gang in Veerulapadu and Tiruvuru of Krishna district, Nallapadu of Guntur, Edlapadu, Ulavapadu of Prakasam, Nellore city, Chintalapudi, Bhimadole, Kodada, Suryapet, Sattupally and Bhadrachalam.

They also stole two bikes in Hyderabad and one in Vijayawada.

Based on a chain snatching complaint from Veerulapadu, Vijayawada Police Commissioner Kanti Rana Tata formed a team to nab the accused. During investigation, police arrested all the accused at Vijayawada Kanaka Durga fly-over while they were going to sell the ornaments. The arrests were made under the supervision of Vijayawada rural DCP Mary Prashanthi and Nandigama ACP Nageswar Reddy. Nandigama CI IV Nagendra Kumar and Veerulapadu SI R Someswarao and other personnel investigated the case.

Collector assures justice to railway land occupants

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA

NTR District Collector S Dilli Rao assured justice to the people, who are living in the vacant railway land at Rajarajewari Peta. Along with VMC Mayor Rayana Bhagya Lakshmi, he visited 56th division on Friday. Speaking to the denizens, the Collector said that over 800 families have been staying in the 8.80 acres of railway vacant land for the past 40 years. However, the railway authorities issued notices to the residents asking them to vacate the lands.

In view of this, the Collector visited the area and assured them that he will once again speak to the railway authorities. He also claimed that if the authorities do not agree, the denizens of the railway vacant area will be provided alternate places of residence. The Collector stated that the government will do 100 per cent justice to the residents and asked them not to worry.
