Mere abusive words don't amount to offence of obscene act: SC

AmitAnand.Choudhary@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Mere utterance of abusive, humiliating or defamatory words by itself do not amount to an offence of obscene act under Section 294(b) Indian Penal Code and it has to be proved that it was done to cause annoyance to others, the Supreme Court held while quashing a criminal proceedings against people under the provision for using unparliamentary language in a public place.

Granting relief to the accused, a bench of Justices S Abdul Nazeer and J B Pardiwala said, "To prove the offence under Section 294 of IPC mere utterance of obscene words are not sufficient but there must be a further proof to establish that it was to the annoyance of others, which is lacking in the case. No one has spoken about the obscene words, they felt annoyed and in the absence of legal evidence to show that the words uttered by the appellants accused annoyed others, it cannot be said that the ingredients of the offence under Section 294 (b) of IPC is made out."

The bench examined the complaint filed by a lady against the accused and found that offence under Section 294 was not made out. It said that the test of obscenity under Section 294(b) of the IPC is whether the tendency of the matter charged as obscenity is to deprave and corrupt those whose minds are open to such immoral influences. "It has to be noted that in the instance case, the absence of words which will involve some lascivious elements arousing sexual thoughts or feelings or words cannot attract the offence under Section 294(b)."

Centre moves SC seeking 5-yr term for ED director

Dhananjay.Mahapatra@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Possibly intending to give a five-year tenure to Enforcement Directorate chief Sanjay Kumar Mishra, the Centre on Friday filed an application seeking modification of the Supreme Court's September 8, 2021 judgment barring further extension to the ED director.

After the pronouncement of the judgment, the Union government had promulgated Central Vigilance Commission (Amendment) Ordinance, 2021, which provided that a director of Enforcement shall continue to hold office for a period of not less than two years and that the term could be extended to a maximum period of five years. A bill to the same effect was passed by Parliament later and came into force on December 19, 2021. The validity of the ordinance as well as the amendment Act has been challenged by a host of petitions.

Mishra would be completing four years as head of ED on November 18 this year, having been granted extensions on the basis of the provisions of the ordinance. The grounds cited by the government in reply to the petitions is that Mishra has been supervising investigations into several sensitive cases, which are at final stages. It had said that appointing a new person as Director of Enforcement would create a hiatus in the speed and efficiency of the ongoing investigations into sensitive cases as the new incumbent would take some time to familiarise himself with the status of probe into such cases.

Mishra would be completing four years as head of ED on November 18 this year, having been granted extensions on the basis of the provisions of the ordinance

When solicitor general Tushar Mehta wanted time to argue the case, a bench of Justices B R Gavai and B V Nagarathna posted it for hearing next week. Appearing for petitioner NGO Common Cause, advocate Prashant Bhushan said that it is a gross abuse of the process by the Union government.
