Malaria, dengue new headache for health dept

MONSOON OFFSET

Rain leading to mosquitogenic conditions

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

IN the wake of incessant rain and floods in several parts of the state, the health department is on high alert and has come up an action plan with measures to check outbreak of vector and water-borne diseases, Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar said. He said that rain and flood-like situation in several parts of the state is leading to increased mosquitogenic conditions and a surge in malaria, dengue, chikungunya, Japanese encephalitis, lymphatic filariasis. and also water-borne diseases. Sud- hakar said he held a meeting with senior officials and is personally monitoring the situation, seeking updates from district administrations on a daily basis.

- District administrations instructed to ensure preparedness to respond to outbreak of diseases, and ensure treatment and management of cases at all healthcare facilities
- Instructions given to set up a control room for close monitoring and coordination at all levels
- Officers directed to form rapid response teams at the district and taluk level, and be ready with the requisite equipment and mobility support, including diagnostic kits, drugs, insecticide, larvicide, to respond to any emerging health situation
- Officials instructed to have village or ward-level micro-plan ready for flood-prone areas, to implement necessary control
- Medical officers at PHCs instructed to increase or strengthen disease-specific surveillance activities, analyse data at microlevel to detect upsurge in vector-borne diseases, so containment measures can be taken
- District and taluk health officers directed to visit areas at risk to ensure surveillance activities and availability of necessary logistics. They have been asked to monitor entomological indices or parameters, predict impending outbreaks, so that preventive measures can be implemented in time
- Officers asked to hold interdepartmental coordination meetings, to seek necessary cooperation on their roles during flood or outbreak situations

Infy plans to hold meet in Hubballi; campaigners to press for action

ARUNKUMAR HURALIMATH

FOLLOWING the #StartInfosysHubli campaign demanding the IT giant to start operation from its already constructed Hubballi campus, the company is said to be holding a meeting of its employees based in and around Hubballi on Friday at its Hubballi campus.

The campus was constructed in 2018 on 43.05 acres of land under the special economic zone (SEZ) category. In phase-I. the company developed a campus with a built-up area of 3.64 lakh sqft, which has a capacity to house 1,400 employees. However, in the last four years, it has not started its operations

Recently, Infosys announced opening of new campuses in Indore, Kolkata, Vizag and other cities to go near to the talent

People in Hubballi city and the north Karnataka region filed an online petition at www. change.org where more than 2,800 people signed it and also started the #StartInfosysHubli campaign.

It is said that following the demand from the region to start its Hubballi campus, top officials, including vice-president level officials are expected to hold a meeting of its employees working around Hubballi on Friday afternoon.

Five-star rating awarded to SMIORE

Hubballi: The Mining Leases of The Sandur Manganese & Iron Ores

Limited (SMIORE) has been awarded a five-star rating at the 6th has been receiving five-star ratings from 2014-15 to till date.

National Conclave on Mines and Minerals held recently in New Delhi.

The award was presented by Union Minister Pralhad Joshi to Bahirji Ajai

Ghorpade - Managing Director and other officials of SMIORE. The firm ospace scientist said that including IIT-Dharwad and IIIT-Dharwad, there are several engineering colleges in and around Hubballi. Immense talent is available here. "Once Infosys starts its campus here, many people will come forward to work here. Instead of investing in other cities to construct campuses, Infosys can make use of the available building in Hubballi, which is well-connected by air, train and road,' he said.

#StartInfosysHubli campaigners said they will visit the Infosys campus on Friday, where the top officials of the company will be visiting. "We will welcome the officials as a good gesture," they said,

When contacted, Infosys replied that they will reply in the last week of this month.
