Bank employees stage protest, discuss nationwide strike on June 27

OUR STAFF REPORTER city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

Bankers in the city staged protest in the city on Wednesday evening and held an assembly meeting to prepare for their scheduled nationwide strike, coordinator of the United Forum of Bank Unions in Madhya Pradesh, VK Sharma said.

They gathered in front of the zonal office of UCO Bank near Arera Hills under the banner of United Forum of Bank Unions in MP and raised slogans against the government and their discriminatory policies. After the demonstration, a meeting was held in which office bearers of the forum VK Sharma, Sanjeev Sablok, Arun Bhagoliwal, Sanjay Kureshia, Nazir Qureshi and others addressed. The Forum is organising a nationwide protest on June 27. More than 10 lakh bank employees and officers across the country and more than 3 lakh employees in MP will join the strike.

The bank employees are demanding a five-day banking week, making all Saturdays and Sundays as holidays. Sharma said, "Apart from the five-day work week, our demands include pension update, abolition of national pension scheme (NPS) and restoration of DA-linked old pension scheme, resolving issues quickly and expanding salary revision in Catholic Syrian Bank and DBS Bank (Lakshmi Vilas Bank)."

"The decision of the bank unions to go on a nationwide strike is a forced step as redressal is far from sight" convener of the forum Sanjeev Sablok said. If the bank management does not take our demands seriously even after this, then in the coming days there will be more nationwide strike in the banking industry, he warned.

'PROFESSORS SHOULD FOCUS ON ACADEMICS'

DHE commissioner attends NAAC workshop

OUR STAFF REPORTER city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

Professors should pay attention to the studies of students because their identity depends on the level of education in the college, the department of higher education (DHE) commissioner Deepak Singh said.

"If the standard of education in the college is good, then students there will get jobs in good institutions. Not only this, the budget received by the college will also increase," he added. Singh was speaking at a workshop, organised by NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) cell of the department at the Academy of Administration on Tuesday. Principals and NAAC coordinators of 41 colleges of the state participated in the workshop.

The commissioner said that every college applying for NAAC should set a target of getting an A or A plus certificate. He said that whether the college is in a rural area or in big city, sooner or later everyone has to get NAAC accreditation. "The department is ready to provide you with all possible facilities and co-operation for this," he said.

He said to the principals that whatever the demand related to furniture etc. for their colleges, it should be given in writing. "We will try to fulfil it as soon as possible," he said. Member of NAAC General Council and Director of Excellence College, Bhopal Dr Prayesh Agrawal and Director of Administrative Academy Pramod Chaturvedi were also present at the workshop.

'Only condition for getting NAAC is quality'

Usha Nair, in-charge and OSD of NAAC cell of the state explained the parameters required for NAAC accreditation through PPT (Power Point slideshow) presentation. She said that there is only one condition for getting a NAAC certificate: quality should be taken care of in every work of the college. Manisha Sharma, Meenakshi Rathi and Sonal Khare of NAAC cell also provided detailed information about the process followed by the colleges for obtaining NAAC certificate through PPT presentation.

Held: Babysitter caught on camera beating toddler

JABALPUR

A woman babysitter was caught on a CCTV camera beating a two-year-old boy when the child's parents were not at their home in Jabalpur city, police said on Wednesday.

The accused, Rajni Ahirwar, was arrested on Tuesday. Additional Superintendent of Police Sanjay Agrawal said. A clip of the CCTV footage also went viral on social media platforms. The toddler's parents, both of whom are working, suspected something amiss as the child was falling ill off and on and had become physically weak despite the fact that they used to keep sufficient quantity of food for him before leaving home, the official said. They subsequently installed a CCTV camera in the room where the babysitter used to stay with the child in the house. Later, they saw the camera recording which showed that Ahirwar used to beat up the child frequently, the official said. The boy's mother lodged a complaint against the babysitter at Madhotal police station.

Based on the complaint, the accused was arrested and booked under relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code, the official said. The child's parents are government employees and had hired the babysitter to take care of their child in their absence, the police added.

Woman boards wrong train, attempts to jump off coach

Alert GRP staff at the platform safely lifted her down from the train

OUR STAFF REPORTER city.indore@fpj.co.in

A video of a woman trying to jump off a train at Indore railway station went viral on Wednesday. The woman first threw her luggage down onto the platform and then she, herself, tried to jump off on the platform. But an alert GRP personnel at the platform safely lifted her down from the train. People present on the platform tried to stop her, but she did not listen. According to information, the incident happened at 10.40 pm on Tuesday. According to GRP TI MA Sayyed, Anita Sapre had to go to Bhopal, but she, accidentally, boarded a train going to Gandhinagar, in Gujarat. After boarding the train, she came to know that the train would not go to Bhopal. But, by that time, the train had already started moving. The woman first threw her luggage down onto the platform then started jumping down from the moving train.

According to Syed, the passengers on the train were trying to stop her and her relatives who had disembarked from the train also tried stopping her from jumping. But the woman still attempted to jump by stretching her legs out of the compartment.

While all this was happening, constable Yogesh Khapre, who was on platform duty, spotted the woman. The constable ran along with the train, grabbed the woman's hand and managed to pull her down and the woman survived an almost-fatal train accident. GRP SP Nivedita Gupta has urged that the constable be given an award.

3-DAY ELECTION TRAINING CAMP

151 more govt staff could be suspended for bunking

OUR STAFF REPORTER city.indore@fpj.co.in

The threat of suspension lies on a total of 285 government officials and employees. At the training camp for conducting elections in the past two days, show-cause notices were issued to these 285 employees.

On Wednesday, IDA CEO RP Ahirwar, who is also training coordinator for the civic bodies' elections, issued show-cause notices to 151 officials for being absent from the training camp that was going on at the Holkar College for government employees for conducting the elections and other election-related duties. IDA officials said Ahirwar went on inspection of the camp set up at the college and found 151 officials absent.

The number has increased on Wednesday's. On Tuesday, 134 employees were absent, while the figure increased to 285 on Wednesday. "If the employees don't respond to the notice with a satisfactory answer or reason, there's a provision of suspending them for negligence in work," said an IDA official.

Ahirwar said that, according to orders received from the District Election Office, the first session of training ended on June 15. From June 16 to 20, the second session will be held. There will be a one-hour examination of the officials on the last day in which they have to pass. The questions will be related to the training. If the officials do not obtain pass marks, they will have to repeat the training session and secure pass marks again. If the officials fail twice, disciplinary action will be taken against them.
