Taking cognizance of report of sexual harassment of nurses by Hamidia hospital superintendent, the Madhya Pradesh Human Rights Commission on Wednesday served notice on health commissioner, seeking a detail report on the matter.

The commission has asked the commissioner to submit the report within 10 days.

More than 50 nurses of Hamidia Hospital, the teaching hospital of Gandhi Medical College, Bhopal, have submitted a written complaint to state medical education minister Vishvas Sarang and other authorities, levelling serious allegations against hospital superintendent Dr Deepak Maravi.

As per complaint, the nurses accused Maravi of sexually harassing some of them and entering their changing room during night.

Sarang has ordered an inquiry into the matter. It will be conducted by Bhopal divisional commissioner Gulshan Bamra. The minister assured nurses of getting inquiry completed within 10 days.

"Matter is serious. Inquiry will be conducted by people from outside Hamidia Hospital. Inquiry report will come in 10 days. Only then, I will be able to say anything", Sarang told mediapersons on Wednesday.

Five-member probe panel constituted

The divisional commissioner Gulshan Bamra has constituted a five member committee to probe the complaints, head of the department of anaesthesia Dr Sikha Malhotra will head the committee which has HoD forensic Dr Ashish Jain, member of social organisation Prathana Mishra, joint director of woman and child welfare department Nakijhan Quarahi and deputy collector Ankita Tripathi as its members.

"Maravi made indecent remarks against communities"

Sanskriti Bachao Manch alleged that Maravi made indecent remarks against Brahmin and Kshatriya communities on WhatsApp group. Maravi, who uses abusive language, is not eligible for this

Will talk to media after consulting higher-ups, says Dr Maravi

When contacted, Dr Maravi said, "All these matters are related to administration. I will talk to higher authorities and then I will talk to the media (on allegations)."

post, Manch office-bearers stated. The members had told Medical Council of India (MCI) team that Maravi was not fit for the job as per the MCI criteria.

Take strict action against guilty: Nath

Former CM Kamal Nath said the state government should take strict action on the complaints of nurses. "An incident of indecent behaviour with 50 female nurses in Bhopal's prestigious Hamidia Hospital has come to light. This is a very serious matter related to the safety of women in the workplace," Nath said. Citing the recent incident of blade-attack on a woman in Bhopal over eve-teasing, the Nath said, "Madhya Pradesh tops the country in the number of crimes against women and minor girls. Even little girls are not safe. Is it good governance? Is this good law and order?"

ministrator, DCBM, Mayurdhwaj Singh, YI chair Devesh Tuteja and YI past chair Siddharth Koolwal were present at this insightful session.

Daly College of Business Management in association with Young Indians-Indore on Wednesday. The resource person, Ashwin Palsikar, shared how, by investing at an early stage of life, one can learn a pattern of financial independence and discipline. Principal, DCBM, Sonal Sisodia, ad-

Palsikar advised the students to start investing early and consistently and to have realistic expectations of their investments. He said one can take a long-term approach to investment without sacrificing one's lifestyle. "The sooner one starts investing, the less one will have to contribute later. Many young adults don't understand how to invest wisely. Often, this is because they're concerned about the here and now, not the future," he said, adding that early investment taught the real difference between investments and savings.

Play based on Vijaydan Detha's stories staged

city.bhopal@fpj.co.in

The students of Tagore National School of Drama staged a play Jeevan Ke Rang, Bijji Ke Sang, based on the three stories, penned by Rajasthani playwright Vijaydan Detha.

His three stories are Anekon Hitler, Dujo Kabir, and Aadamkhor. The students of the first batch of the school prepared the play under the direction of former director of National School of Drama Devendra Raj Ankur. It was part of concluding-day of the two-day drama fest at Ravindra Bhavan in the city on Tuesday evening. The play Anekon Hitler (Many Hitlers) depicts five cousins who buy land of migrants after independence and go to the city to buy tractors. On their way back, a cyclist overtakes them and they consider it an insult. The race starts between the tractor and the cycle. The five brothers hit the cyclist to show their pride. The latter dies. This ends his dreams and dreams of his girlfriend. Dujo Kabir revolves around the protagonist Kabir who is an eminent artist.

Aadamkhor tells a story about a priest's parents who, fed up with his antics, hand him over to the goddess in a temple.

dents of IIST/IIP/IIMR to achieve new dimensions in their careers and personality by learning meditation and yoga. The director-general of the college, Arun S Bhatnagar, said it was a matter of great fortune that Daaji Kamlesh Patel, global head of Ram Chandra Mission,
