Online training on export documentation from tomorrow

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA (NTR DISTRICT)

FEDERATION of Andhra Pradesh Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FAPCCI) is organising a three-day online training programme on 'Export Documentation-Practical Aspects' from June 2, according to programme coordinator SK Sahabuddin.

He said in a statement here on Tuesday that the importance of understanding and correctly completing export documentation is crucial for any export businesses. This enables the goods to arrive at their country of destination smoothly and can be cleared through customs quickly, building a sustainable working relationship with overseas customers. Errors in documentation can delay the consignment encountering storage costs, which can escalate. Therefore, the importance of these documents should not be underestimated. In order to refresh the knowledge of preparation of export documentation, FAPCCI is organising online training, he said.

This unique training course will take a practical approach to completing export documents including proforma invoice, shipping bill, bill of lading, bill of sight, letter of credit certificates of origin among others, helping the entrepreneurs to present clean and accurate export paperwork for every shipment. On the topics to be covered, Sahabuddin said that it would include proforma invoice, customs packing list, country of origin or COO Certificate, commercial invoice, shipping bill, bill of lading or airway bill, bill of sight, Letter of Credit, Bill of Exchange, Export License, Warehouse Receipt and health certificates. He appealed to the interested persons for details of the training programme to contact K Srikanth on 9391422821/fapccivizag@gmail.com or Sahabuddin on 8008579624/info@fapcci.in

NTR district yet to get tomatoes despite Minister's promise

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA (NTR DISTRICT)

MORE than 10 days passed since Agriculture Minister Kakani Govardhan Reddy announced sale of tomatoes at lower or subsidised price at Rythu bazaars. The announcement was made in view of the skyrocketing prices of tomatoes in the State. Rythu Bazaars in NTR district are yet to get tomatoes from the government.

Tomatoes are being sold at Rs 60 per kg in Rythu bazaars in Vijayawada city for the last two weeks. The quality of tomatoes is also not good. Due to impact of summer, its supply was decreased from Madanapalle of Chittoor district. Consequently, its rates are skyrocketed and reached to Rs 100 a kg.

Agriculture Minister Kakani

Govardhan Reddy has announced that tomatoes would be sold in Rythu Bazaars in Vijayawada at low prices, which are yet to receive the stocks. The government has purchased tomatoes from other States and supplied to other districts across the State during the last ten days.

People use tomatoes for cooking anything. But with the high prices, they are not daring to buy it at Rs 60 a kg. In retail market, the price is between Rs 60 to Rs 80 a kg depending on quality and size. Vendors in Rythu bazaars are purchasing tomatoes from wholesalers and selling in small quantities at Rs 60 a kg.

The Marketing department officials say that the NTR district is likely to get tomatoes from the government on Wednesday.

Internet services to be restored in 3 mandals in Konaseema district

HANS NEWS SERVICE
AMALAPURAM (KONASEEMA DISTRICT)

INTERNET services, which were suspended for the last one week in violence-hit Konaseema district, would be restored from Tuesday midnight.

It should be noted here that the State government has proposed to rename Konaseema district after Dr BR Ambedkar. Opposing the proposal, some people organised a massive agitation on May 24 demanding retention of the original name of Konaseema district. After a large scale violence erupted in the district, internet services were suspended in 15 mandals including Amalapuram, Ambajipeta, Kothapeta, P Gannavaram, Jaggampeta, Mukkamala, Mummidivaram, Ravulapalem, Dindi and others in the district. Several went to Talarevu, Kakinada, Rajamahendravaram and Yanam to avail internet services and stayed in lodges and temporary shelters to do work.

Particularly, students appearing for competitive exams, businessmen and employees, who depend on banking services, are the worst sufferers. Mobile communication also been affected because of the snapping of signals. People are eagerly awaiting the restoration of internet services so that they can carry their regular transactions.

In village and ward secretariats, all works were suspended. A few volunteers in the secretariats have been taking thumb impression of the beneficiaries at Godavari river bank as there are signals.

Eluru Range DIG G Pala Raju said that entire Amalapuram is under police control and peace is restored. Stating that search is on to nab other accused involved in violent acts, he said cops will catch them by evening and send them to remand. Rowdy elements are responsible for the attacks and they would be booked soon, he added.

The DIG exhorted youth and students not to fall in the trap of anti-social elements and ruin their bright career. District Superintendent of Police KSSV Subba Reddy told The Hans India that three mandals will receive internet service from Tuesday night. And later other mandals also will get internet services. The SP said that heavy police deployment will continue in the areas. Seven persons were taken into custody on Tuesday, he informed.

Telugu Mahila demands apology from Minister Roja

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA (NTR DISTRICT)

'IT is public victory that Mahanadu is a grand success,' said Telugu Mahila district president Chennupati Usha Rani while addressing the media at the party office here on Tuesday. Thanking people for their unstinted support to TDP, she condemned the statements of YCP Ministers.

She said the YSRCP Ministers were speaking out of frustration as their bus yatra was an utter flap. She took exception to the derogatory statements of the ruling party women Ministers against women.

Telugu Mahila State vice-president Asha said in spite of the hurdles created by vested interests, people welcomed Mahanadu. "Chandrababu Naidu has become the Chief Minister on May 28 at the venue of Mahanadu in the perspective of party cadre and people by and large," she said.

Condemning the statement of Minister Roja, Asha said that it is highly objectionable on the part of Minister Roja to say that there was unnecessary outcry over a couple of rapes. She reminded that Roja too has a daughter. Asha demanded apology from Minister Roja to women of Andhra Pradesh. "Otherwise, she would face the same fate as the Sri Lankan Minister.'

Telugu Mahila organising secretary Madala Rajalakshmi and Vijayawada East Telugu Mahila president Konasagani Nagamani were also present.

Vasireddy Padma laments increase in crime against women

HANS NEWS SERVICE
RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM (EAST GODAVARI DISTRICT)

AP State Mahila Commission chairperson Vasireddy Padma exhorted people to respond with awareness on women issues. She said the Women's Commission was formed because women achieved certain rights and that their rights would be realised with the social movement.

Addressing the Meet the Press at Rajahmundry Press Club here on Tuesday, she lauded the fact that many people wanted to do good for society and that
