AP Cabinet to be mix of old & new, BCs to get priority

Selection process will be completed today; new team likely to be in place on Monday

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

ANDHRA Pradesh Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy's new team will be sworn in at 11.31 am on Monday. The muhurat for the swearing in ceremony was fixed and the venue would be the vacant space near Secretariat. The Cabinet would be a mix of old (those who resigned recently) and new and BCs will be given more representation than the previous composition of Council of Ministers.

For the second consecutive day, Jagan closeted with his advisor and party general secretary Sajjala Ramakrishna Reddy for nearly three hours to pick up his new team. "The exercise would go on till Sunday afternoon," Sajjala announced emerging out of the meeting. He said that those who are picked up for the Cabinet would get calls from the Chief Minister's office on Sunday.

Giving the broad outline of the Cabinet composition, Sajjala said that those who resigned from the Cabinet would also be part of the new team. "I cannot comment on how many of the old team would make it into the new Cabinet now. The Chief Minister knows very well how his team's composition should be and he would take the right decision," he said. Sources said at least seven ministers might be re-inducted into the new Cabinet.

As the team would take the government policies to the people in the run up to 2024 elections, the Chief Minister is said to have decided to give more priority to BCs in the new team. "BCs would be given more representation than the first Cabinet," he said and added women would also be given priority. The first Cabinet of Jagan had seven BC ministers. It is said that the Home Minister post which was held by M Sucharitha in the first Cabinet would once again go to a woman.

The Chief Minister is said to have narrowed down on at least three leaders from each of the undivided 13 districts and exercise is on to pick up the final team.

Power crisis temporary: AP Energy Secy

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

URGING people to cooperate during the ongoing power crisis, Energy Secretary B Sreedhar said that the gap in demand and supply has led to an inevitable situation in the State where power holiday and other curbs had to be imposed on the industries so as to ensure supply to the domestic and agriculture sector. Speaking to mediapersons on Saturday, the Energy Secretary maintained that this is a temporary situation, and added, "We are expecting normalcy to be restored by the month-end, with demand for the agriculture sector dropping after the harvest season."

However, he said if the situation demands, there might be occasional one-hour power cuts for the domestic sector over the next two-three weeks and assured the farm sector of seven hours of uninterrupted power supply during the day.

He further said, this summer economic activity has fully resumed after a gap of two years leading to a boom in the market.

Besides, the rise in mercury-level and the harvesting season have also added to it.

ACTOR-DIRECTOR BALAYYA PASSES AWAY AT 93

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

RENOWNED actor, director and producer Mannava Balayya died on Saturday morning due to age-related ailments in the city. He was 93 and is survived by his son and actor Tulas Ram Prasad. He was honoured with the Raghupathi Venkataiah Award in 2010.

Born in Chavupadu village in Guntur district of Andhra Pradesh, Balayya was a Mechanical Engineering graduate. Inspired by stage plays and dramas, Balayya took to acting under the guidance of late director-writer Tapi Chanakya, who introduced him as the lead actor in the 1958 social drama Ettuku Pai Ettu. Produced by Sarathi Studios, the film failed to live up to expectations. He continued to play the lead in films like Bhagyadevata and Kunkuma Rekha, which brought him recognition.

Balayya's Chivaraku Migile was described by actor Savitri as one of the most unforgettable films of her career. He acted as Krishna for the first time in the mythological film Krishnaprema and as Rukman-gadhuni in Mohini Rukman-gadha directed by KS Prakash Rao. Though Balayya continued to play the hero in several other films, he found great success in the supporting roles he acted alongside other actors.

He acted with NTR in films like Iruugu Porugu, Babhruvahana, Bobbili Yuddham, Pandavanavasamu, Vivahabandham and Sri Krishna Pandaviyam. In Pandavanavasamu, late NT Rama

Mannava Balayya

Rao (NTR) played the role of Bheema, while Balayya played the role of Arjuna. Following that, Balayya played Yudhishthira in NTR's directorial Sri Krishna Pandaviyam. While NTR became popular for playing the roles of Sri Krishna and Lord Rama, Ba-layya found acceptance among audiences for playing Lord Shiva in several films. In Krishnam Raju's Bhakta Kannappa, Balayya first played the role of Lord Shiva. Audiences lapped him up in the divine role and in the course of his career, Balayya played Lord Shiva at least 10 more times.

The actor eventually discovered his penchant for writing and wrote the story for Chelleli Kapuram. He won the Nandi Award for second best story writer and producer for Oorukichchina Maata.

Balayya also produced the film under his banner Amrutha films and it was directed by K Viswanath. The duo of Balayya and Viswanath once again joined hands for the hit film Neramu Siksha. It was later remade in Tamil as Nee- dhikku Thalaivanangu and in Hindi as Shiksha.

Balayya made his directorial debut with Nijam Chebite Nerama, starring Krishnam Raju and Jaya Prada. He went on to direct films like Pasupu Taadu and Police Alludu.

The multi-faceted Balayya has acted in over 300 films and his last screen appearance as an actor was for Ramachari (2013), where he played the role of a Chief Minister.

Condolences and tributes are pouring in from the film fraternity for the actor-filmmaker. Actor Nandamuri Balakrishna termed the passing away of Balayya as an irreparable loss to the Telugu cinema. The Telugu Film Directors Association, in a statement, offered their heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family members.

3 knee replacement surgeries at Gandhi hosp

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hyderabad

WALKING the talk of improving healthcare in government hospitals, Gandhi Hospital embarked on a three complete knee replacement surgeries in a single day from 8.30 am to 12.30 pm. These were done along with other regular ortho consultations.

Such back-to-back surgeries were not common in government hospitals earlier. Meanwhile, Health Minister T Harish Rao has been pushing for reforms by conducting reviews of every department.

It is learnt that over a week ago, specifically for orthopedic surgeons across the State, a special workshop was conducted by private specialists on how ortho surgeries could be done more efficiently and in large numbers.

It is further learnt that with the Health Minister monitoring individual doctor's performance in departments of big hospitals like Gandhi and Osmania, the departments are expected to collaborate more effectively and conduct surgeries.
