RAIPUR: Durg police arrested a 13-year-old and a 10-year-old for allegedly gangraping a five-year-old girl. Police have lodged an FIR under IPC Section 376 and POCSO Act against the boys for allegedly raping the child. According to the SHO of Nevai police station Bharti Markam, on the complaint of the parent of the victim, an offence was lodged against the alleged assaulters. The heinous crime took place on Friday, when the victim's parents, who are labourers, were out at work. —Avesh Mallick

Russian bear runs into...

The conflict has already driven hundreds of thousands of Ukrainians from their homes. UN officials said more than 120,000 Ukrainians have left the country for Poland, Moldova and other neighbouring nations.

The assault has pulverised bridges, schools and residential neighbourhoods. But it was unclear in the fog of war how much of Ukraine was under Ukrainian control and how much Russian forces have seized. Ukrainian and Western officials, however, say Ukrainian forces have managed to slow the Russian advance.

Western officials believe Russian President Vladimir Putin is determined to overthrow Ukraine's government and replace it with a regime of his own. The invasion represented Putin's boldest gambit yet to redraw the map of Europe and revive Moscow's Cold War-era influence. It has triggered new international efforts to end the invasion, including direct sanctions on Putin.

The Ukrainian president's whereabouts were being kept a secret after he told European leaders in a call Thursday that he was Russia's No. 1 target — and that they might not see him again alive.

The Biden administration is convinced that Russia was never serious about finding a diplomatic solution to the crisis over Ukraine, and the offer on Friday for talks in Belarus amounted to a sham. "Moscow engaged in the pretense of diplomacy," the State Department spokesman, Ned Price, told reporters at a daily news conference. "It now appears quite clear that Russia was not, and has not been, interested in genuine diplomacy."

According to sources, Putin's plan is relying on spooking the country, firing missiles at residential buildings 'at random' to 'intimidate' the Ukrainians, trigger mass army desertions, national surrender, and Zelensky's flight from the country.

Pawar, kin exerted clout in...

However, only Ajit Pawar filed an affidavit in reply. Ajit Pawar was the Minister for Irrigation and ex-officio Chairman of the Maharashtra Krishna Valley Development Corporation (MKVDC) at the relevant time. He was a part of the meeting which granted clearance to the proposed dam which would aid water supply to Lavasa.

Jadhav had contended that in the absence of a rebuttal, the allegations must be deemed to have been admitted by them.

The court noted in its judgement: "... all with a view to give shape to Shri Sharad Pawar's dream project of Lavasa -- it cannot be said that exertion of influence and clout by Shri Sharad Pawar and Smt. Supriya Sule is an unreasonable inference..."

In the absence of the "unrebutted allegations", the court observed: "... we are left to judge the veracity of the allegations on tests of probability without anything more substantial by way of answer. Shri Sharad Pawar and Smt. Supriya Sule being personally interested in the project of the hill station, it is proved by preponderance of probability that the allegations are true."

As far as allegations of favouritism by Ajit Pawar are concerned, the HC noted that it was his 'solemn duty' to disclose his personal interest in the matter.

"As the Minister for Irrigation and holder of a Constitutional office by virtue of which he was the Chairman of the MKVDC, it was the solemn duty of Shri Ajit Pawar to disclose his direct or indirect interest in the matter," added the court.

The court also took note of the fact that no tender was issued for the same before awarding the contract.

The court noted that Jadhav has shown a "serious concern and commitment" to take up the cause "involving some powerful respondents" in his PIL. It said, however, it could not grant any relief due to delay, observing that: "... we feel that a 'judicial hands-off' approach is perhaps best suited in the present case having regard to the intervening delay between the alleged acts of viole of Constitutional guarantees and institution of this public interest litigation."

The court also said that it has been almost more than a decade that Lavasa has come into existence and considering that none of the farmers had challenged it, "it would not be unreasonable to assume that they were/are happy and satisfied with whatever bargain they were able to make".

MVA govt turns the heat on...

This was in response to a question asked by a member, state Congress chief Nana Patole. The three-member committee was headed by the former acting director general of police Sanjay Pandey. The committee observed that Shukla had illegally tapped phones and hence a case has been registered against her and others.

Home Minister Dilip Wase-Patil, in response to a question on whether the government will suspend Shukla, said the government will seek legal opinion as she is currently on Central deputation. Wase-Patil refuted BJP's charge that the police action taken against Shukla was an act of revenge. "The question does not arise. The action has been taken after accepting the report submitted by the three-member committee," he noted.

A senior home department official said the committee had said the police are allowed to tap phones as per the legal provisions in connection with public safety, terror acts, delicate situations and international relations. However, the police cannot tap phones other than in connection with such cases. The committee found that Shukla had tapped the phones for reasons other than the permissions she had sought and found this to be illegal.

"It was also found that Shukla tapped the phones of Patole by changing his name as Amjad Khan, minister of state for education Bacchu Kadu as Babu Shaikh, former MP Sanjay Kakde as Abhijit Nair and former legislator Ashish Deshmukh as Mahesh Salunke. Their phones were tapped on the plea that they were involved in the sale of drugs," said the officer.

Leader of Opposition Devendra Fadnavis had cited a letter, purportedly written by Shukla to the then DGP Subodh Jaiswal, about the alleged police transfer racket. The state government had sought an explanation from Shukla but was not satisfied by her response. The former Chief Secretary Sitaram Kunte was asked to conduct an enquiry in the matter.

Kunte had said that Shukla had taken permission to record these calls under the guise of interception of calls of a few people in the interest of public safety and had thus misgued the authorities. "In fact, the interception is done in case of the possibility of a threat to national security and anti-national activities under the Indian Telegraph Act to avert any such threats. The interception is not expected for political differences, professional or family disputes. However, Shukla did use the permission for the purpose other than it was meant for, thereby misleading the government and misusing the permission," the report said.

UP 5th phase: stray cattle...

There was some belated damage control exercise by the Yogi Adityanath government, which held a meeting with employees unions to convince them about the benefits of the National Pension Scheme. But they were unconvinced.

Interestingly, BSP chief Mayawati, taking a cue from SP, has also pledged to restore OPS. The Congress has promised a solution which is a cross between OPS and NPS.

Jat and Muslim voters had dominated the first phase; the minorities in the second phase; and there was a preponderance of Yadav and Lodh votes in the third phase; to that extent, the fifth phase is a mix of various backward communities and minorities.

The analysts dub it as a fertile region for Mandal (Backward) politics, but with Ayodhya, Chitrakoot and Prayagraj falling in this area, the BJP has been experimenting with the Kamandal (religious) card. The BJP has campaigned extensively in this phase highlighting the benefits it has extended to the poor through its welfare schemes. The Vishwa Hindu Parishad as well as the Ram Mandir Trust, too, campaigned for the BJP in Ayodhya and adjoining areas.

The voters of Amethi, Rai Bareilly, Sultanpur, Kaushambi, Barabanki, Behraich, Shravasti and Gonda would also cast their votes on Sunday. This round would seal the fate of many political heavyweights, including Deputy Chief Minister Keshav Prasad Maurya and five other ministers of the Yogi cabinet.

Former minister and leader of Jansatta Dal, Raghuraj Pratap Singh, alias Raja Bhaiya, is contesting from his traditional seat of Kunda in this phase. The other prominent candidates are former King of Amethi estate, Dr Snajay Singh; UP cabinet minister Siddharthnath Singh from Prayagraj; minister CP Upadhyay from Chitrakoot; Rajendra Pratap Singh from Pratapgarh; and Prateek Bhushan, son of BJP MP Brijbhushan Singh, from Gonda city.

In the previous assembly election in 2017, the BJP had won 47 out of 61 seats in this phase, while in 2012 the SP had tasted success on 41. In 2017 assembly polls, the SP could get only five seats and the BSP three.

Single window for e-auction...

modes depending upon their choice and suitability without paying any additional charges or discount to the coal companies.

Officials said the decision will remove the market distortions as all consumers will get coal at a single rate, leading to increase in the domestic coal demand and it will eliminate the coal companies' discretion of allocating coal to different end users.

It shall also increase operational efficiencies and lead to an increase in domestic coal demand. Clubbing of the e-auction windows would not involve any additional cost to the coal companies.

Further the coal companies shall be able to establish coal gasification plants by availing coal from their own mines. It shall help in developing clean coal technology.

Hence, with better availability of domestic coal with better price stability and predictability, the import of coal is expected to come down drastically. This would reduce the dependence on imported coal and would be conducive to making of 'Atmanirbhar Bharat'.

Okay to 20% FDI in LIC...

in LIC, which is a statutory corporation established under the LIC Act, 1956.

Since, as per the present FDI policy, the foreign inflow cap for PSU banks is 20 per cent under government approval route, it has been decided to allow foreign investment of up to 20 per cent in LIC and other corporate bodies.

Increased FDI inflows will supplement domestic capital, technology transfer, skill development for accelerated economic growth and development across sectors.

Further, in order to expedite the capital raising process, such FDI has been kept under the automatic route, as in the case of the rest of the insurance sector, one of the sources said.

Sources said other minor enhancements in the existing FDI policy have also been carried out in order to provide an updated, consistent and easily comprehensible FDI framework.

The FDI policy currently lists only 'Insurance Company' and 'Intermediaries or Insurance Intermediaries' under the insurance sector.

LIC being a statutory corporation, is not covered under either insurance company or intermediaries or insurance intermediaries and no limit was prescribed for foreign investment in LIC under the LIC Act, 1956; the Insurance Act, 1938; the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority Act, 1999 or regulations made under the respective laws.

Further, with an intent to improve the overall FDI policy, certain changes and alignments under various provisions of the policy have been carried out.

"The reform in the FDI policy will have several benefits. It would facilitate foreign investment in LIC and such other corporate bodies, for which the government may have a requirement for disinvestment purposes.

"The reform will facilitate ease of doing business and lead to greater FDI inflows, and at the same time, ensure alignment with the overall intent/objective of FDI policy," a source said.

Setting the stage for the country's biggest-ever public offering, Life Insurance Corporation on February 13 filed draft papers with capital market regulator Sebi for the sale of 5 per cent stake by the government for an estimated Rs 63,000 crore.

The initial public offering (IPO) of over 31.6 crore shares or 5 per cent government stake is likely to hit D-stock in March. Employees and policyholders of the insurance behemoth would get a discount over the floor price. According to the draft red herring prospectus (DRHP), LIC's embedded value, which is a measure of the consolidated shareholders value in an insurance company, has been pegged at about Rs 5.4 lakh crore as of September 30, 2021, by international actuarial firm Milliman Advisors.

AI-1944 brings back...

Indian Embassy and government, who helped us get out of there." Pooja Agarwal, the mother of Prathamesh Agarwal, said, "I am a mother of a third-year medical student. The kids were so scared when all this happened. They panicked and there was chaos. Sometimes my son could not connect via internet and would share a hotspot or find some other way to get in touch. He was able to return safely but there are many students of his college who are still stuck out there. As a parent, I can understand what their parents must be going through. I thank the government for getting our kids back and just hope all the other kids will reach home soon."

Pooja burst into tears as she hugged Prathamesh who thanked the government for the swift action in helping those stranded. "I was lucky to make it out but my friends are still stuck. We came with stickers of white flags and the Indian tricolour pasted on our bus. The Romanians were very helpful as they paved the way for us," added Prathamesh.

Laxmi Shrivastava, who was at Terminal 2 to receive daughter Srishri, broke down while speaking about the situation and how indebted she was to the Modi dispensation which facilitated the return. "Srishri had been sending us pictures and videos of the situation there. After reaching the shelter, the students were given food and water. They were asked to send their baggage first and keep only handbags," said Laxmi.

One of the evacuees, Shruti said, "We had already booked personal flights which were scheduled for later but due to the war emergency we boarded the flight organised by the Indian embassy. If everything returns to normal in Ukraine, we will go back but, as of now, we will complete the ongoing semester in India. I'm thankful to the university as well, who understood our plight and have facilitated online classes. They have also helped us get back to our country. Some of my friends are still stuck there and, hopefully, within 3-4 days they too should be back."

Speaking about the situation in Ukraine, Rutuja Kamble from Kolhapur said, "It had been two months since I went to Ukraine for studies and suddenly the war broke out. The cities around us started getting attacked and we were terrified. Finally, the evacuation program started and arrangements were made for us to come home."

Vidhant Shinde, who was quite evidently happy to be back, said, "A city which was 60 km from the place where I was staying was being attacked and as soon as we got to know of this, there was panic. But the Indian embassy has been a great help in evacuating all the students safely. Around 250 students from my university are still stuck in Ukraine. Hopefully, they also should be home in a day or two." Another student, Radhika, said the evacuation process was easy for them as they stayed along the western border of Ukraine, but the same could not be said for the students staying along the eastern borders.

Some states — Gujarat, Tamil Nadu and Kerala — had sent their respective government officials to receive the students, so they may be escorted home. While there were two students from Tamil Nadu, 13 were from Kerala and some others from Gujarat.

Kerala's outstanding debts top ₹3L-crore

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM:

On the eve of Kerala's new state finance minister KN Balagopal preparing the text of his first full state budget on March 11, the biggest cause of concern is the state's mounting outstanding debts, which according to the budget for 2021-22 will be Rs3.27 lakh crore by the end of this fiscal.

Outstanding debts is the sum total of public debt which consists of internal debt, loans and advances from centre besides loans from financial institutions such as LIC and special securities and not to mention of borrowings from deposits in state PF, treasury, pension funds and insurance.

Even when the overall picture of Kerala's finances was never rosy, it took a severe blow like the rest of the world with the Covid pandemic, leaving the cash crunched state in an even piquant position. To get a clearer picture of the debt, it is best highlighted as a ratio of the size of the state economy/state gross state domestic product.

A comparison of the national picture of states and UTS with the highest debt GSDP ratio in 2022 are Arunachal 57.4%, Kashmir 56.6, Punjab 53.3, Nagaland 44.2, Himachal 43.4, Rajasthan 39.8, Meghalaya 39.2, West Bengal 38.8, Kerala 38.3 and Andhra 37.6.

One thing has to be noted, is the present staggering figure of the outstanding debts of Kerala did not happen overnight and successive state governments to a certain extent can take credit for the achievements of the state in the fields of education and health, which leads the rest of India and to reach here, investment is required, but looking deeper into it experts revealed the real situation.

RIVALRY BETWEEN LOCAL GANGS LED TO BAJRANG DAL ACTIVIST MURDER: POLICE

BENGALURU: Long-standing rivalry between local Hindutva and Muslim gangs probably led to the murder of the 27-year-old Bajrang Dal activist Harsha Hindu in Shivamogga, Karnataka by a gang of armed men on Feb 20. This is the view shared by senior police officials, who are also probing how the 10 men, who are in police custody till March 7, got together to execute the murder.

The police however have not ruled out the possibility of the involvement of a larger group. But they have not found any evidence of the role of outfits like the Islamic organisation, the Popular Front of India. Though the police are probing the timing of the activist's murder in the backdrop of the hijab row raging in the state, a senior police official told the media their investigations have shown there is no "immediate motive" behind the murder. And that it was more a case of a rivalry that had built up over a period of time because of Harsha's active involvement with Bajrang Dal activities.

2 Maoists arrested from Jharkhand, 6 in Chhattisgarh

RANCHI / BIJAPUR: Two more hardened Maoists carrying a reward of Rs5 lakh each on their heads were arrested during the ongoing 'Operation Double Bull,' a top cop said on Saturday.

Inspector general of police (operations) Amol V Homkar said the Maoists were identified as Sudarshan Bhuiyan alias Nand Kishor Bharti and Balak Ganju. Both were sub-zonal commanders of CPI (Maoists), Homkar said. Bhuiyan, who is wanted in 57 cases, was arrested from Sildalia in Palamu district, while Ganju, wanted in 25 cases, was arrested from Dewbar in Latehar on Friday.

Further, six Naxals were arrested from separate places in Chhattisgarh's Bijapur and explosives were seized from four of them, police said on Saturday.

Sonu Korsa, 35, Munna Hapka, 37, Mangal Korsa, 26, and Sonu Hapka, 27, were apprehended from Padedda-Cherpal area under Bijapur police station limits, while Korsa Sannu, 30, was held from a different location in the same area, additional superintendent of police Pankaj Shukla said.
