Kozhikode Corp to tie up with IIM-K for phase-II of We-Lift

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kozhikode

THE city corporation is planning to launch the second phase of its ambitious 'We-Lift, an integrated livelihood generation programme.

In this phase, the civic body will join hands with Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode (IIM-K), to tap the employment opportunities in Information Technology (IT) and food processing sectors.

Corporation welfare standing committee chairman P Divakaran said, "We-Lift scheme aims to generate fresh employment opportunities in various sectors to offer livelihood to jobless people. In the initial stage, we had set a target to provide jobs to 5,000 persons by the end of this financial year. We have already offered 3,070 jobs to qualified persons and hope to achieve the target this year itself.

Now, corporation is planning to enhance the programme by generating more employments for well-educated people and others—mainly women—with the support of India's premier business school," he said.

IIM-K will offer all technical support and know-hows to identify new job opportunities in various sectors and set up new ventures.

The corporation had signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with IIM-K for the same in August.

"The corporation is mainly focusing on food processing and information technology fields. We have planned three programmes which mainly aims to generate jobs for women. As part of this, food processing units to make value-added products from agricultural items and 150 stalls will be opened at Vengeri agricultural market with the support of Ku-dumbashree Mission to sell the products. Another project is to open up a dry fish-making centre which aims to offer jobs to women from the fishermen community," said Divakaran.

He further said, "There are many educated women in the city who left their jobs to take care of kids or family. We plan to provide employment opportunities to such women in information technology fields. Jobs which can be done at home will also be generated. Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode has already started discussions with various information technology companies in this regard," he added.

As part of the scheme, the corporation also organised a loan subsidy mela in August which was attended by nine leading banks.

The corporation is mainly focusing on food processing and IT fields. We have planned three programmes which mainly aims to generate jobs for women.

'5,013 people live in extreme poverty in Thrissur'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Thirissur

AS part of the poverty eradication measures of the Central and state governments, a survey was conducted on March 2022 to identify people living in extreme poverty.

The survey found that a total of 5,013 people in Thrissur are living under extreme poverty. Of them, 3,636 are from grama panchayats, 996 from municipalities, 381 from the corporation, 1,337 belonging to Scheduled Tribe, and 44 from Scheduled Caste. Apart from them, 28 people were identified as migrant labourers, mentally challenged people and destitute.

The survey mainly focused on the health, living conditions and income of the people. Those who don't earn a daily income, destitute and families with bedridden or terminally-ill people were included in the extreme poverty category.

The Local Self-Government and Civil Supplies Departments also distributed Aadhaar cards, ration cards and voter ID cards to 750 people out of the identified extreme poverty cases.

The state government aims to eradicate extreme poverty within four years. A follow-up survey will be conducted soon which will be jointly coordinated by the Local Self-Government and Civil Supplies Departments. "Necessary steps have been taken to ensure proper supply of nutritious food to people in the extreme poverty category.
