

Strictly implement ban on cockfights: Collector Shukla

HANS NEWS SERVICE
KAKINADA

DISTRICT Collector Krithika Shukla ordered the officials for strict implementation of ban on cockfights and other gambling sports on the occasion of Sankranti festival.

She held a review meeting with police, revenue, veterinary, panchayat and transport officials at the Collectorate here on Wednesday.

The Collector informed that the High Court issued orders for banning cockfights during the Sankranti season. She wanted traditional rural sports to be motivated and encouraged and instructed the officials to create awareness among the people to celebrate Sankranti festival in a traditional joyful manner.

Krithika warned the organisers of stringent action if they conduct cockfights. She wanted to constitute committees and monitor the situation. She advised them to utilise propaganda material against cockfights such as posters, banners in the district. She also wanted them to propagate the rules regarding the action to be taken against cockfights. She stated that action will be taken against the owners of agricultural fields or private lands where cockfights will be held.

The Collector suggested providing an alternative by holding competitions pertaining to rangoli, volleyball and other traditional games. She also asked them to create an awareness regarding the traditional games. The officials were instructed to strictly follow High Court orders in toto. She instructed them to set up check-posts near the borders of the districts and prevent the people with any intention to indulge in cockfights. The officials further directed to stop people coming from other districts carrying bags of money along with them for participating in the cockfights. She wanted the officials to hold meetings at division and mandal levels and take necessary steps for preventing cockfights as well as gambling games.

She also wanted a comprehensive report regarding the supervision, action and allied disciplinary action taken against those who are responsible for cockfights.

AP pension distribution system unique: Minister Vanitha

(EAST GODAVARI DISTRICT)

YSRCP Parliamentary Chief Whip and Rajahmundry MP Margani Bharat Ram said that Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy's roadshow and public meeting in Rajahmundry on Tuesday were successful because of the love and support of the people of East Godavari district. Addressing a press conference at his office here on Wednesday, he said that the CM's popularity is the reason for the unprecedented success of this tour. More than one lakh people came from all over the district, he added.

The MP said that there is no other State in the country that provides pensions to large number of people. "That is why people voluntarily participated in pension hike week celebrations and supported the CM. He said that the weekly celebrations of the pension hike are being held in a festive atmosphere across the State.

Jagan, KCR hatched conspiracy to weaken Bandi, says Kanna

He also fires salvo at Somu Veerajuu

HANS NEWS SERVICE

BJP national executive committee member Kanna Lakshminarayana alleged that Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy and Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao hatched a conspiracy to weaken Jana Sena and BJP by encouraging AP leaders to join the BRS. Their motive is to weaken BJP's Bandi Sanjay besides Pawan Kalyan at the same time. Alleging that they motivated Kapu leaders to shift their loyalty to BRS, the BJP leader extended his cooperation and support to Jana Sena Party chief Pawan Kalyan.

Speaking to the media at his residence here on Wednesday, BJP leader Kanna Lakshminarayana said that while he was working as the party State president, he helped several leaders join the BJP. He further said that Somu Veerajuu changed several party district presidents without discussing it in the party core committee meeting. He said Veerajuu did not discuss with him about changing party district presidents. The latter is discussing the party matters in the party core committee meeting. "Rajya Sabha member GVL Narasimha Rao's thinking is different. I have seen GVL Narasimha Rao's attitude on the State capital Amaravati issue and other matters," he said. Lakshminarayana questioned Somu Veerajuu on his relative joining the BRS.

CPI stages protest over ban on roadshows

(EAST GODAVARI DISTRICT)

CPI National Executive committee member Akkineni Vanaja said that Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy has brought hidden GOs and undisclosed restrictions in the State and putting shackles on democracy. She vehemently protested the government's ban on rallies, roadshows and public meetings. On Wednesday afternoon, a procession was organised from CPI office to Tadithota Junction under the auspices of CPI district committee.

CPI leaders and activists staged a protest with their hands handcuffed. After that, copies of the government orders imposing restrictions on political demonstrations and gatherings were burnt.

Speaking on this occasion, Vanaja accused Jagan of insulting the Constitution. 'Andhra Pradesh rulers are adopting undemocratic policies.' She said that it is strange that Jagan Mohan Reddy, who had marched all over the State when he was Opposition leader, is now barring others from doing so. She asked why they should not fight on public issues. She called upon all the democrats to fight against the immoral and undemocratic orders of the government.

CPI district secretary Tatipaka Madhu, assistant secretary K Rambabu, district executive committee members V Kondala Rao, A Satyanarayana, Sappa Ramana and others participated in the protest.
