ADIVASI Mahasabha Legal Adviser Inarapurapu Suryanarayana demanded the authorities to declare the Polavaram project submergence area as an atrocity-prone area and prepare a comprehensive report on the Polavaram submergence mandals where SCs and STs are subjected to atrocities. He sought immediate justice for displaced people by implementing the R&amp;R package.

Speaking to media at Rajahmundry Press Club on Thursday, he said that the Central government will hold a meeting in Delhi on December 5 regarding the Polavaram project budget. According to the recommendations of the Justice Punnaiah Commission in 2001, the then government issued GO No 116 on this, he recalled.

He said that the then government declared West Goda-

Legal Advisor of the Adivasi Mahasabha Suryanarayana speaking at a press conference in Rajamahendravaram on Thursday vari and Khammam districts as the most atrocity-prone districts. Now, 7 mandals from Khammam district are in the Polavaram project flooded area. Similarly, Polavaram Mandal of West Godavari District is also the same.

He alleged that the Land Acquisition officials are violating laws and giving false reports to the courts and criticised them for violating the new Land Acquisition Act, PESA Act, SC and ST Act. Not paying adequate compensation for the acquired land, paying less than the R&R package and not giving compensation to displaced persons under the new Land Acquisition Act are offenses under the SC and ST Act.

In 2007, the AP High Court ordered that the project work should not be undertaken without moving displaced people to the resettlement areas and action should be taken against all those who violate these orders.

He urged the government to provide security to the 3 lakh STs and 60,000 SCs who are under the threat of floods due to illegal works of the Polavaram project.

Adivasi Mahasabha President A Veerabhadra Reddy, Secretary M Bangurubabu, All India Tribal March State leader Y Nageswara Rao, SC Nirvashi sangham leaders Madipati Satish, M Ratnaraj, Sonia, K Raghupathi, M Posamma and others were present.

Man gets 20-yr jail in POCSO case

A minor girl aged 11 years of Darsi mandal was sexually assaulted by Chaganti Venkateswara Reddy (53) on April 16, 2020

ONGOLE

PRAKASAM district SP Malika Garg in a statement here on Thursday said that Chaganti Venkateswara Reddy (53) was sentenced 20-year jail and a fine of Rs 1000 was imposed to him by POCSO Court, Ongole.

The SP informed that a minor girl aged 11 years of Darsi mandal was at home while her parents went to work on April 16, 2020. Venkateswara of the same village lured the girl to buy a chocolate for her and took her to his house.

He sexually assaulted the girl and threatened to kill her if she shared the information with anyone. Learning about the incident, her parents complained to police and the then ASI Sai Reddy of Darsi police station registered a case. The then DSP of Darsi

K Prakasarao investigated the POCSO case arrested the accused, sent him to remand and filed the charge sheet in the court.

Following the Good Trial Monitoring System set up by SP Malika Garg, the Darsi DSPs followed up on the case and provided witnesses and evidence in the case to the special public prosecutor Y Venkateswarlu, who successfully proved the accused guilty.

The judge also asked the District Legal Services Authority to see the victim receive a compensation of Rs 50,000.

The SP appreciated the then Darsi DSP K Prakasarao, present DSP Ashok Vardhan, SPP Y Venkateswarlu, court liaison ASI Venkateswamy, M Yallamanda, Darsi PS Court head constable B Kasaiah, home guard K Kasaiah.
