Spectacular ‘Shoba Yatra’ rings in anticipation for Ram Mandir

HANS NEWS SERVICE
MAHUBNAGAR

AS the much-anticipated Ayodhya Ram Mandir installation ceremony approaches on January 22, 2024, BJP leaders, Hindu organisations, and members of various Hindu religious societies came together for a spectacular ‘Ramula Vari Pujitha Akshitala Shobha Yatra’ in the streets of Mahbubnagar district on Sunday.

The procession, led by BJP national vice-president DK Aruna, witnessed enthusiastic participation from leaders such as Bandari Shanthi Kumar, BJP state leaders, and Mahbubnagar MLA contestant AP Mithun Reddy. Speaking during the Shobha Yatra, DK Aruna expressed optimism, stating that the consecration of the newly constructed Ram Temple in Ayodhya would soon fulfill the long-standing dreams of over 100 crore Indians.

The streets echoed with fervent ‘Jai Sri Ram Slogans’ as many BJP activists, members from Hindu religious organisations, and the public joined the Shobha Yatra. The event not only showcased the unity of various segments of society but also highlighted the collective anticipation and excitement surrounding the historic installation ceremony scheduled for later this month. As preparations intensify, the Shobha Yatra served as a vibrant prelude to the significant cultural and religious milestone awaiting the nation.

Couple found dead on tracks

MIRYALGUDA: The incident of an unidentified young man and a young woman committing suicide by falling under the train came to light near Miryalaguda railway station in the district on Sunday morning.

According to Railway GRP SI Salakamma, Railway SI Pawankumar Reddy, the railway staff in early morning found the bodies on the railway tracks at Miryalaguda railway number 115 milestone and informed the railway police. The body parts were strewn all around.

The man was said to be of about 30 years age, and the woman could be about 25 years old. The railway ticket found at the spot was bought at Vijayawada railway station at 11 am on Saturday.

They could have Janmabhoomi Express, which was scheduled at that time. No evidence was found to trace their identities. The bodies were shifted to the mortuary of Government Area Hospital, Miryalaguda.

MLA's plea to emulate Lord Ram's ideals

HANS NEWS SERVICE
RANGAREDDY

IN a symbolic display of reverence for Lord Sri Ram and his ideals, Shadnagar MLA Veerlapalli Shankar, along with former MLA Choulapalli Pratap Reddy and other dignitaries, participated in the Jana Samparka Abhiyan programme organized by Sri Rama Janmabhoomi Tirtha Kshetra Trust. The initiative aims to reach the sacred ‘Akshintalu’ (sacred rice grains mixed with turmeric or saffron) of Lord Ram from Ayodhya to households across the nation.

Veerlapalli Shankar, addressing a gathering at the local Sri Venkateswara Swamy temple, emphasised Lord Ram's governance (Rama Rajya) as an exemplary model for contemporary society. He stressed the need for governments to emulate the principles of justice and righteousness set by Lord Sri Ram. He underscored the transformative power of chanting Sri Ram's name and expressed pride in contributing to the construction of the Sri Ram temple in Ayodhya.

Villagers protest over Baligera road neglect

HANS NEWS SERVICE
GADWAL

BSP has demanded early completion of Kurnool-Raichur interstate road immediately.

The BSP leaders along with people from Baligera and other surrounding villages staged a protest against the negligence of the contractor and officers of R&B on Baligera road on Sunday.

The road from Mitta Doddi village to Baligera has been lying incomplete for years. The road was neglected by the previous BRS government though it was started in 2016. Many accidents have taken place, claiming many lives, on the accident-prone road but the R&B authorities are least bothered about the its completion.

The BSP leaders along with the local people staged a protest, decrying the attitude of Gadwal MLA and the officials concerned. They demanded that the Congress government take appropriate measures to ensure the completion of the same road as early as possible.

The BSP leaders Bandari Raju, and other leaders from Gattu mandal participated in the protest.
