People’s Theater Group pays tribute to Savitribai Phule

The People’s Theater Group paid tribute to Savitribai Phule, the country’s first female teacher, with a theatrical presentation based on her life struggles on Saturday at Pragma Higher Secondary School in Kolar. The play, directed and written by Sindhu Dhaulpure involved 20 artists showcasing Phule’s contributions against social injustices and superstitions. Approximately 450 school students attended the presentation. The narrative began with Phule’s childhood desire for education, leading to her expulsion from school due to her status as a Shudra girl. The play also highlights Savitribai’s activism against the practice of head shaving widows, leading to protests and a strike by barbers.

The deadline set by the National Green Tribunal (NGT) to clear encroachment from the 33-metre range of Kaliyasot river ended on Sunday, the illegal structures are yet to be removed. The state government has to submit an action taken report by January 14 in the NGT. The Bhopal Municipal Corporation (BMC) has been issuing notices to the residents of Sagar Premium Tower, Ultimate Campus, Bhumika Residency, Signature, Sarvadharm, Mandakini Colony, Shirdi Puram, Amarnath Colony. Throughout the length of the river, colonisers have constructed huge structures and sold them to the public. Now, these have come under illegal marking and demarcation.

MP Civil Service Sports Assn organises alumni meet in Agartala

Bhopal: Former members of Madhya Pradesh Civil Service Sports Association organised alumni meet in Agartala on New Year eve. The meeting was held to celebrate the legacy of Madhya Pradesh’s theatrical excellence there. Former Bhopal Commissioner Kavindra Kiyawat shared his journey as an accidental drama artist, playing a role in the team going to Agartala at one point. Jyashree Kiyawat portrayed a Muslim woman in burqa, while music enthusiast Ulhas Telang played the role of a beggar. Ashok Manwani portrayed a leader, and Renu Tiwari described her challenging role as a distressed woman. The artistes reminisced about the joyful moments, including an eight-day tour of Tripura, Meghalaya, West Bengal, and Assam. The gathering of officers and civil servants aimed to contribute to Madhya Pradesh’s pride in the Hindi stage domain, acknowledging the roles played by various individuals. At the gathering of 25 artistes, four IAS officers also participated.

Yadav body demands strict action against trader

Indore: Rashtriya Yadav Shakti Sangathan protested at the Central Kotwali police station on Sunday. They submitted a memorandum to the station in-charge and demanded strict action against the trader who had beaten his ex-employee. The state president of the organisation Nandlal Yadav said that they would organise a big protest if their demands were not fulfilled and strict action was not taken against the trader. They claimed that the trader had beaten the victim mercilessly as he left his job at his shop. Resultantly the victim was not able to walk and he was severely injured after the thrashing. They are demanding that the accused should be arrested under strict sections

Kaliasot river bed encroachment

Deadline ends, illegal structures yet to be removed

tion. Environmentalist and NGT petitioner Dr SC Pandey said, "This case has been pending in the NGT since 2014. In August 2023, the NGT had ordered marking and demarcation within a radius of 33 metres from both the banks of the 36-km-long river in two months. The state government has assured the NGT that demarcation and removal will be completed by December 31 and an action taken report will be submitted by January 15."

On the other hand, Kolar SDM Ashutosh Goswami said, "Marking and demarcation has been completed. Now, the BMC has started giving out notices. The report has to be presented in the NGT by January 15. Now, we will start action to remove illegal and unauthorised structures."

Meanwhile, MLA Rameshwar Sharma, in a letter to collector Asheesh Singh, has mandated not to take action on humanitarian grounds. Referring to the colonies covered under unauthorised construction, he has written that the people have spent their entire life's savings and bought these houses. The notice to demolish them should be reconsidered.

Badhai dance, Malwi songs presented at Tribal Museum

Makhanlal Ahirwar and his troupe from Sagar presented Badhai dance, which enchanted the audience at MP Tribal Museum in the city on Sunday evening. Badhai is performed by women and men to thank Goddess Shitala for safeguarding people from natural calamities and ailments and to seek her blessings on weddings and childbirth. Majority of the people in Bundelkhand worship Goddess Sheetala during calamities like floods, epidemic when people pray to the Goddess to seek immediate relief and recovery. When blessings are showered and wishes are fulfilled, women and men dance before Goddess Shitala to express gratitude. The musical instruments including Dhapla, Timki, Lota, Rantula, Algoja are played during the dance. Malwi songs were presented by Leelabai Malviya and her troupe, Dewas. It was part of Sambhavana, a series of events on dance, singing and musical instruments, organised by the museum.

People rush to petrol pumps as trucks, tankers come to a halt

Bhopal: Truckers’ association is up in arms against the law in which punishment has been increased in hit and run cases. Though they have not gone on official strike but on the call of the association, truck drivers have brought the wheels of trucks to a halt. The final decision on strike will be taken on Monday. In hit and run, the punishment has been increased up to 10 years along with a fine. As tankers have also come to a screeching halt, vehicle owners may face the shortage of fuel. On learning about the impending strike, people rushed to petrol pumps to get their fuel tank filled. However, MP Petrol Pump Dealers Association has said that it is trying to manage the show by pressing its tankers into service to maintain supply. The enactment of the new penal law, Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita has made provision of up to 10 years imprisonment and a fine in hit and run cases. Currently, hit and run cases are tried under section 304A of the Indian Penal Code, which provides for up to two years in jail. All India Motor Transport Congress (AIMTC) state president CL Mukati said, "On January 2, we have convened a meeting to chalk out a strategy of strike against the new law. At present, it is an unofficial strike which truckers have staged in the country. In the country, there are 1 crore trucks and in MP, there are 25,000 trucks including oil tankers."
