SOCIAL EMPOWERMENT A REALITY IN AP: YSRCP

Ministers thank CM for making empowerment of SCs, STs, BCs and Minorities, which had been only an ideal since Independence, visible in the state

(PRAKASAM DISTRICT)

DEPUTY Chief Minister Amzath Basha said the social empowerment of downtrodden sections of population which remained a slogan for a long time since Independence has now been visible in the state thanks to Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy.

YSRCP's 'Samajika Sadhikara Bus Yatra' took place in Kanigiri on the 11th day. Deputy CM Amzath Basha, ministers Merugu Nagarjuna, Audimulapu Suresh, MPs Magunta Sreenivasulu Reddy, Beeda Mastan Rao, MLAs and party leaders participated in the programme.

Highlighting the tangible winds of change witnessed under the YSRCP rule, Amzath Basha said the social empowerment bus yatra is a chapter that will remain in history forever. "Since independence, we have seen politics that solely saw the poor and the weaker sections as a vote bank. Social empowerment remains a slogan even in states where BCs, SCs, STs, and Minorities have served as Chief Ministers. But today it is visible to our eyes in our state under Jagan's rule," he said.

Minister Nagarjuna said that many in history thought and ideated about social empowerment, but it is only CM Jagan who could accomplish it. He said, "Great personalities like Ambedkar, Jyotirao Phule and Maulana Abul Kalam Azad thought about social empowerment, but Jagan Mohan Reddy chose their ambitious path and brought social revolution. The bleak days are gone, and a ray of hope has emerged for the poor who have seen many humiliations and hardships during Naidu's tenure. Through welfare schemes, CM Jagan uplifted the BC, SC, ST, and Minorities to walk with self-dignity."

Underlining the core principles of accountability, transparency and honesty under Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy's government, minister Suresh said, "People of Kanigiri know more about social empowerment than we do. In 2014, they believed in lies and Naidu won. Later, everyone understood how much they were deceived and betrayed. In 2019, people crowned Jagan in an unprecedented manner. This time they were not fooled. They are seeing the real transformation in the form of CM Jagan who has fulfilled 99 per cent of the promises already."

CID Additional Director General N Sanjay warned that the CID will act tough on those making objectionable and abusive posts in the social media.

He said that the CID initiated steps to prevent the attempts of those who try to create unrest in the State through objectionable and abusive posts in social media.

Speaking to mediapersons at the secretariat here on Wednesday, the Additional Director General said that some people were resorting to making objectionable posts in social media on Chief Minister and his family, Opposition leaders, judges, celebrities and others.

He said that the CID identified rise in such posts in recent times and initiated steps to curb such illegal practices. The additional DG said that the CID formed special teams and monitoring cells to identify the culprits and to curb such practices. He said that the CID prevailed upon the social media platforms to delete as many as 1,450 inappropriate posts in 2022 and the number increased to 2,164 in 2023.

He said 2,972 cyber history sheets were opened against the online abusers. The CID official said that the department has been corresponding with foreign countries through diplomatic channels with the cooperation of Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) to nab those culprits taking shelter in those countries.

He said the Legal Assistance Treaty programme and international cooperation helped the CID to handle 45 cases of overseas trolls and lookout circulars were issued in five cases. He said CID teams were formed in UK and USA to monitor the NRI accounts. The CID chief said that those targeting Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy and his family members have been identified and suitable action will be taken against those people.

The CID will hold a summit with the participation of industry partners in Vijayawada and Visakhapatnam to create a positive social media atmosphere. Positive influencers will also participate in the summit. CID cyber crime SP Harshavardhan was also present at the media conference.
